Story

In one small village, there lived an usual family. A loving father, a beautiful mother and two gifted children. The girl's name was Kate, and her brother was Noel.

Kate was a much more gifted child. She had a high concentration of mana and she easily controlled most of the magical elements. Noel was less gifted, he only studied the basics of magic. Their father did not have a magical gift, he was making various household appliances. Their mother, Carolyn, was a skilful healer and selling herbs in a small market square. The family was not very rich, but they lived in prosperity.

Once, bandits attacked the village. It all started with the market. They needed money, goods items and magical artifacts ... One old woman refused to give the family ring. In anger, one of the robbers hit her. Seeing this, Carolyn decided to intervene. The village was small and poor, by the standards of the capital... The bandits were waiting for much more booty. They wanted a lot more... But they got only village staffs, herbs and a handful of gold. This infuriated them.

The leader of the bandits, wheezed something and attacked the Carolyn. It could not be a fight. It was a slaughter. The guards were stabbed right away, the bandits began to kill the merchants. Carolyn was been killed.

After this incident, Noel's family fell into despair. Father stopped working and helping the village, stopped eating and talking to children. He constantly locked himself up in his workshop. Always worked on something. At this time, brother and sister, after long disputes, decided to collect the remaining gold coins and send Kate to study at the Higher Academy of Mages, in the capital.

"You are very gifted, Kate", said Noel. "You can become a real adept!"

"But what about our father? He's health is completely bad! We need to take care of him, and even if I leave, you won't have any gold left to..."

"I can do it", Noel interrupted her. "I believe in you, and you will must believe in me!"

Passed few months. Noel worked with the sweat of the brow up to midnight. He almost did not upgrade his magical knowledge. The father, at all, went mad. He sold all his inventions. Noel tried to argue with him, appeal to reason, but everything turned out to be in vain. After this deal, father rented a small jetty. There, he start to build something like a boat or small ship...

As time went. Kate sometimes wrote letters to her brother. She studied the runes, various magical seals. Increased her manna potential and soon she should have had an important exam. Noel was happy for her. But Noel was often sad because of mom, sister and... father and because of that time, when everything was fine... Noel still did not know that the worst was yet to come...

And so it happened. Noel was about to go to bed. When suddenly his father flew into the room, almost knocking the door off its hinges.

"Noel! NOEL !!! Get up, faster! Hurry up!"

"Father?.. What?.."

"No time, son!", with these words, he grabbed Noel's arm and they literally ran towards the rented pier.

On the way, Noel managed to notice that the sky was multi-colored. No stars were visible. There were no clouds. Only a cold, pale blue glow on one side of the sky and a blood-scarlet on the other. And it approached each other. It was literally going to devour everything between them.

"Rather! Faster!", with a wheeze in his voice and through a cough, his father shouted.

A strange glow was approaching, and Noel and his father were all running towards the pier. The shimmering shadows were getting closer, and the glow turned into fire.

Noel and his father almost reached the pier. It already showed a huge ship. Noel did not believe that his father did it. He was shocked and...

...And then came the moment when two magic glow - collided. Two blazing twinkles. Two stars. Two spells...

Everything around was wrapped in a mist of flowers, Noel and his father closed his eyes, and when the blinding and stunning was gone, Noel saw his father lay on the ground. In blood... He was dead. Noel did not have time to do anything, say anything, or even cry. Fire and water flooded everything around. Flames devoured trees and buildings ... And the water absorbed the earth and all who were on the surface. Water did not extinguish the fire. Two elements, as if mixed with each other in unison, bringing only chaos and destruction.

Noel, literally at the last second, jumped into the ship and the magic wave, pushed him.

When the consciousness returned to him, Noel saw only the ocean. Around him - a solid ocean.

After the panic that seized Noel for long hours, after tears, understanding that everything he knew about the world is dead, after long deliberation and unsuccessful attempts to take control of mind, Noel realized that now he has a single goal. His life goal is to find a sister. He did not want to think that the same fate befell her. Anyone was supposed to survive?! Noel believed in her.

And he also knew that there were to be Three Great Magicians in the capital. Three defenders. Three pillars. Three supports. They had to protect the capital! Let everything be destroyed, but the capital will not fall! Their power is undeniable. No matter what kind of magic it was, the Three Great Magicians would protect the inhabitants of the capital! They will protect Kate. They must do it!!!

Noel did not know, what magic destroyed everything around. He did not know, is his sister was alive or not. Did not know, if he even had a small, single chance to find a sister...

But it was his hope.

Noel's Hope.

Some great game ideas looking forward to better game play, keep up the good work!. NOTE: This game is VERY UNFINISHED WITH TONS OF BUGS, GRAPHICAL PROBLEMS, AND A BIG MESS... But I only recommend it to people who really want to offer the developer constructive feedback to help him make this super ambitious indie game better.

Watch My "First Play on Launch Day" Impressions and Review Video HERE:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q6u_6HAuXxA&feature=youtu.be

The reason I am recommending this game is because even though this game is full of issues and bugs that need a lot of work, when I play this game I can both feel and easily see his vision and a ton of hard work to create his dream. His game here is extremely ambitious, and when I look at everything he is trying to create with "Noel's Hope" I can't help but wonder if he has bitten off more than he can chew here. It is beyond inspiring and awesome to see, even in the games current state, what this developer envisions and the world he is creating. I honestly believe that he has the ability to pull off a very fun and enjoyable game with more work. My goal at the point is to help both encourage him and give him valuable feedback by showing him problems I see and making suggestions.

If you watch my above video, I think you'll get a good understanding of everything that is both great and wrong with this launch day build today. My hope is that "Noels Hope" evolves with updates and time until it becomes the real gem I can see in it under all of the current problems today.

This game is NOT RECOMMENDED for anyone looking for something "fun" to play right now. Should this developer fail to offer timely and continuous updates to make this game better, I will change my review to a "not recommend".
